Portraits commissioned are posted on this site; You can also send me your picture and I will draw or paint your picture in my drawing style for free. The artwork will be used to promote the website and will be posted with the website watermark. You can then purchase the original works if you like it or the print version without the watermark. Contact me here or on Instagram to submit your photo for drawing.

Disclaimer: Artist [that's me] owns copyright to all works commissioned by purchaser that was drawn or painted by Artist, including all reproduction rights and the right to claim statutory copyright. Artist will not post original picture, unless given permission to do so. Purchaser [that's you] retains copyright of original photo from which drawing/painting is done.
